

As the project manager, ensuring the front-end production aligns with the UI designs and is pushing for a responsive, mobile-first approach. facilitates collaboration among the team to optimize the front-end development.

Collaborative Management of Tasks Tool
Front-end Production

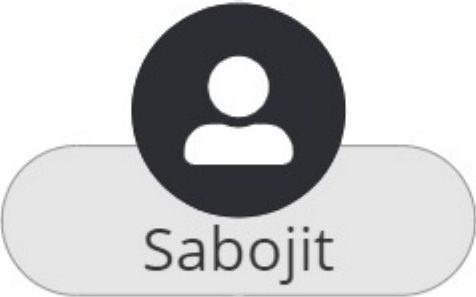

managing JavaScript functionality, prioritizing smooth user interactions, and efficient code that keeps the app running smoothly across various platforms.

tasked with HTML and CSS development, focusing on responsive design and is set to ensure the designs are fluid across all devices.

in charge of CSS animations, ensuring they complement the user experience by being attractive yet not overbearing takes on the state management with React hooks, focusing on modular code for better maintainability and planning to ensure state changes are handled effectively without performance hits.